Andra Tutto Bene Challenge

(Italian for "All will be good")

You share your best workout stories on slack on the #share-workout channel and every week we award the most impressive story with some free gear (see samples above).

Your story could be:

- a physical performance (e.g. long erg session, bike ride, billion push-ups)
- an impressive picture from your workout
- a spectacular yoga position
- a picture of you working out at a spectacular site.
- a picture of an impressive skill

Let your imagination wander during those long workouts and come up with an awesome idea.

The Junior Coaches will be the judges.

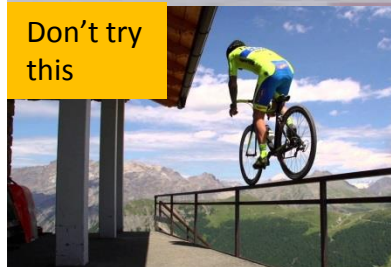

You impress us and we reward you!
